Supporting Statement

The 'Why you feel you are suitable for this position' part of the form is called your supporting statement. It is the most important part of the application form.

You should consider the following:

- Applications can only be assessed on the information you provide. You need to clearly demonstrate your capabilities.
- You need to explain how you meet each of the person specification points and provide examples from your previous experience. Do not forget to present this in relation to the job description.
- Often the strongest applications are those that link the three elements highlighted above and are presented in a clear format (e.g. numbered points that correspond to person specification).
- We expect your supporting statement to be a minimum of  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a side of A4 and a maximum of 2 sides.
- Use concise, unambiguous sentences and avoid exaggerations.
- Honesty is always the best policy; please do not make false claims.
- If you are making a career change, stress what skills are transferable to the role you are applying for.
- Ensure you return your application in good time before the closing date - aim for the day before the deadline.
- Use concise, unambiguous sentences and avoid exaggerations.

Finally good luck with your application and thank you for your interest in Generate.
